

OUTBREAK RESPONSE:

Temporary Testing and Masking

Based on capacity and local circumstances, school administrators may choose to implement temporary universal testing and masking for all staff and students in impacted classrooms, teams, or grades regardless of vaccination status or recent infection to limit the burden on staff to determine exposed close contacts, vaccination status and recent infections.*

Updated on February 11, 2022